

Equal Opportunities Statement

Although Techcon Solutions Limited have not recently recruited so do not have a recent job description, we would refer to the equal opportunities policy and use this to create a job description that was inclusive as an equal opportunities employer.

As the office manager, I have taken part in an Equality and Diversity Essentials training course to ensure that we have the relevant competencies to abide by the Equality Act 2010. This enables us to protect people from discriminations throughout the recruitment process.

Kind Regards,

Shannan Aram

Office Manager
